

CONSUMER PROTECTIONMandatory disclosure form

- 67. (1) A property practitioner must—
- (a) not accept a mandate unless the seller or lessor of the property has provided him or her with a fully completed and signed mandatory disclosure in the prescribed form; and 25
 - (b) provide a copy of the completed mandatory disclosure form to a prospective purchaser or lessee who intends to make an offer for the purchase or lease of a property.
- (2) The completed mandatory disclosure form signed by all relevant parties must be attached to any agreement for the sale or lease of a property, and forms an integral part of that agreement, but if such a disclosure form was not completed, signed or attached, the agreement must be interpreted as if no defects or deficiencies of the property were disclosed to the purchaser. 30
- (3) A property practitioner who fails to comply with subsection (1) may be held liable by an affected consumer. 35
- (4) Nothing in this section prevents the Authority from taking action against a property practitioner or imposing an appropriate sanction.
- (5) Nothing in this section prevents a consumer, for his or her own account, from undertaking a property inspection to confirm the state of the property before finalising the transaction. 40

Agreements

- 68. (1) An agreement to sell and purchase or to let and hire property, or the mandatory disclosure form contemplated in section 67, must be drafted by the developer or seller, as the case may be, for his, her or its own account. 45
- (2) The Authority must publish from time to time an updated version of guideline agreements on its website.
